

Society of Actuaries in Ireland

The Society welcomes the running of the tutorials outlined below. Though the Society is not directly involved in developing or reviewing the content of the tutorials, we believe that they will usefully extend the education opportunities available to our Student members.

CA2 Tutorials

CA2 tutorials for the 2019 April exams will take place in Dublin in February 2019. The aim of the tutorials is to provide effective assistance to actuarial students who are studying to pass subject CA2 – the model documentation, analysis and reporting examination of the Institute & Faculty of Actuaries.

There was a 100% pass rate amongst the students who sat CA2 after attended the CA2 tutorials programme for the September 2018 examination.

Format:

There will be a full-day tutorial covering the theory behind CA2 on Saturday the 2nd February. This will be followed by a series of assignments and a full-day practical tutorial on Saturday the 9th February. There will be a mock CA2 exam in March. The tutorials also involve a number of individual feedback sessions and a general feedback and review tutorial closer to the CA2 exam.

Format aim: to prepare students to sit CA2 in April 2019.
