

Society of Actuaries in Ireland

The Society welcomes the introduction of the new tutorials outlined below. Though the Society is not directly involved in developing or reviewing the content of the tutorials, we believe that they will usefully extend the education opportunities available to our Student members.

CP3 (Communications Practice) Tutorials

CP3 tutorials run by an experienced tutor will take place in Dublin in March 2019. The aim of the tutorials is to provide effective assistance to actuarial students who are studying for subject CP3 (Communications Practice) – the communications examination of the Institute & Faculty of Actuaries.

Cost

€900 per person.

Tutor

Des O’Sullivan

Des O’Sullivan lectured on the Graduate Certificate in Actuarial Applications programme at DCU, where he re-wrote the syllabus in 2009 and continued to develop the teaching programme in line with CA3 developments, and has lectured on the UCD Actuarial & Final Studies undergraduate programme. Des has an extensive background in the financial services industry, ranging from pension scheme documentation and trusteeship, to corporate advice, investment policy, product design and specialist client advice. He is a Fellow of the Irish Institute of Pension Management, a Revenue approved Pensioner Trustee, and a Pensions Authority registered Trustee Trainer. Des has delivered talks at a number of Society of Actuaries’ events and has advised the Institute and Faculty of Actuaries on CA3 teaching and examining issues, and provided tutorials to students sitting CA3 online up to 2017 and CP3 thereafter.

Format (CP3)

Two full-day tutorials running on the 9th March and 16th March 2019, with written assignments, individual feedback and general feedback, followed by additional individual and general feedback, and a review of progress prior to sitting CP3.

Format aim: to prepare students to sit CP3 in April 2019.
