

Society of Actuaries in Ireland

Chartered Enterprise Risk Actuary (CERA) Tutorial

The Society of Actuaries in Ireland is pleased to announce that it is holding a half-day CERA tutorial from 1.30pm-5.00pm, Wednesday 5th March 2014 in the Society's Offices. The aim of the tutorial is to provide effective assistance to student and Fellow members of the Society who are studying for subject ST9 – the Enterprise Risk Management exam of the Institute & Faculty of Actuaries to attain the CERA qualification.

Cost

€120 per person, limited to a maximum of 12 people and subject to a minimum take-up of 3 participants.

What will be covered?

Agenda

14:00	Introduction
14:10	How to pass ST9 <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Why candidates typically fail ST9• ST9 study and exam psychology• ST9 study and exam technique
15:15	Coffee
15:30	The ST9 Exam <ul style="list-style-type: none">• How ST9 exam questions are set• How ST9 exams are marked• Lessons to learn
15:45	Worked example of actuarial exam question and answer setting process to highlight key lessons
16:15	Brief overview of ST9 course <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Highlighting salient aspects
16:35	Applying the methodologies to answer some past ST9 exam questions
17:30	Finish

Tutor

Colm Fitzgerald

Colm Fitzgerald is a lecturer in Actuarial Mathematics at DCU and a Senior Teaching Fellow in Financial Markets at Keele University, where he lectures on the MSc in Finance & Risk Management programme. Colm was one of the original authors of the ST9 Core Reading. He is currently a member of the ST9 Syllabus Review Group. He is involved in several different aspects of the Institute & Faculty of Actuaries' educational system across a number of subjects. Before working in education,

Society of Actuaries in Ireland

Colm worked in investment, trading, life insurance and risk management. Colm is a fellow of the Institute & Faculty of Actuaries and the Society of Actuaries in Ireland.

How do I book?

Your place can be reserved by booking through the website

<https://web.actuaries.ie/events/2014/03/details-including-agenda-cera-tutorial>

Closing date for applications?

Friday, 21st of February 2014.