

THE SOCIETY OF ACTUARIES IN IRELAND

Professionalism Event

Thursday, 12th May 2011 – Conrad Hotel, Dublin

PROGRAMME

8.00	Registration and Coffee
8.30	Welcome & Introduction	Kevin Murphy, President Mike Claffey, Course Facilitator
8.40	Professionalism & the Actuary	Mike Claffey
9.15	Regulating Professional Conduct & Ethics	Ciara McGoldrick Head of Legal Affairs and Fitness to Practise Unit, The Pharmaceutical Society of Ireland
10.05	Coffee
10.20	Business ethics case studies	Mike Claffey
11.00	Regulation of Solicitors – Comparison with Actuaries	John Elliot Director of Regulation, The Law Society of Ireland
11.50	CPC Quiz	Yvonne Lynch
12.30	Lunch
1.30	Practice-specific case studies
3.00	Coffee
3.15	Update on the Society's activities	Yvonne Lynch, Director of Professional Affairs
3.45	Panel Discussion	Mike Claffey, Keith Burns, Kevin Manning, Yvonne Lynch, Paul O'Faherty and Richard Tulloch
4.45	Closing remarks	Mike Claffey

Biographies of our guest speakers are on the next page.

Ciara McGoldrick

Ciara McGoldrick is a barrister and chartered accountant and is the Head of Fitness to Practise and Legal Affairs at the Pharmaceutical Society of Ireland. Prior to joining the Pharmaceutical Society she advised the Medical Council, An Bord Altranais and the Veterinary Council in relation to disciplinary proceedings against practitioners. She was also counsel for the Investigation Committee of the Commission to Inquire into Child Abuse

John Elliot

John Elliot is the Registrar of Solicitors and Director of Regulation of the Law Society of Ireland. He is a law graduate and a solicitor, qualified in both Ireland and the UK, and an MBA. John was formerly Law Agent, Company Secretary and a General Manager of ACC Bank in Dublin and before that worked in London as a Senior Legal Adviser to 3i, a leading international investment company, having started his career in private practice in Edinburgh 30 years ago.